Honors 9th Literature has an integrated curriculum designed to increase and refine reading, writing, listening/speaking, and college readiness skills. Students will be encouraged to think critically about literature through text to self, text to text, and text to world connections. They will plan, draft, polish and publish written compositions of narrative, expository, argumentative, interpretive, and reflective modes. Students will have opportunities to complete research processes that adhere to MLA guidelines and will receive support while completing their required research projects. The course is designed to prepare students for the rigor of continued course work in sophomore, junior, and senior honors or AP English classes, as well as develop skills needed for success on the AP Language and Composition exam and the AP Literature and Composition exam. Most importantly, this class will lay the foundation for success in future classes, the workforce, and beyond. This class is challenging, but you are capable of success. Let's get to work!

Mrs. Motsinger Policies & Procedures

ATTENDANCE

Attendance and participation are required. It is your responsibility to find out what work you have missed if absent. Missing work will be entered in the gradebook as 0% (Missing) immediately. The grade will be replaced upon completion of the assignment, assuming it is turned in within the requirements per the Harrison Student Handbook.

LATE WORK

Late work will incur an automatic loss of points. Summative assessments will be accepted only with 3 days of the due date. If submitted late on the due date, 10% will be deducted. If submitted 1-2 days after the due date, 30% will be deducted. This includes weekend days. Late formative assessments will not be awarded points (100% deduction) but may be submitted for feedback only.

GRADING

Grades will be entered into Synergy. It is your responsibility to check that your grades match what is entered electronically. Late grades will be entered after your teacher grades all on-time work.

Your teacher will not collect and evaluate every task you are asked to complete; however, you are expected to complete each task. Strive to find the value in practice.

HONESTY

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated in any form. Any assignment in which any portion of the work is proven to be the product of anyone other than the student will be given a zero and will result in a referral to administration. The same applies to students who “share” work/work together without teacher permission.

TECHNOLOGY

No phones or other devices for personal use are allowed in class unless approved by the teacher.

PREPARATION

Students are expected to be prepared for class each day. That means:

- You have writing utensils including pens, pencils, and highlighters
- You completed the assigned homework and reading
- You turn homework in at the beginning of class (or by the due date).
